RMB partners with the University of the Witwatersrand in a R430-million deal to increase student residence capacity

The University of the Witwatersrand has signed a R430-million loan agreement with Rand Merchant Bank to fund post-graduate student accommodation over a 22-year period. The student lifestyle centre, situated in Parktown, will help to alleviate accommodation pressures in the area, assist the City of Johannesburg's urban renewal programme and support the government's goals for higher education.
