RMB AND MTN SEND A CLEAR SIGNAL TO ZAMBIA

Rand Merchant Bank served as sole lead arranger and funder in a US$65-million ICT infrastructure deal for MTN in Zambia. Building on its excellent relationships with a variety of key role players in the African telecommunications sector, Rand Merchant Bank connected MTN Zambia with Huawei for a capital equipment purchase that will add significant ICT infrastructure, giving Zambia improved connectivity. The deal gives MTN increased network capacity and Huawei increased uptake of its leading ICT solutions, in Africa.
