RMB provides development and term funding to Alchemy Properties for the construction of Sasol's new Sandton corporate offices

Building on a long-standing relationship with Alchemy and our expertise in financing urban developments, Rand Merchant Bank took on the role of sole lender and mandated lead arranger, to fund the development of Sasol's new 67,000m² building in Sandton. The state-of-the-art building will be among South Africa's largest private, single-tenant office developments to date and will be co-owned by the Sasol Pension Fund.
